LL.M. made in the U.S.

For more than 45 years the Deutsch-Amerikanische Juristen-Vereinigung / German American Lawyers' Association (DAJV) has been a leader in transatlantic legal education and exchange. Most of our 2,500 members have graduated with degrees from U.S. law schools and many attended one of our events before applying for their American legal education.

Due to the Covid19 pandemic, the event will be held virtually, as it was in 2020. The concept of Seminar and Fair, which has been attractive for many years, will be maintained, so that the participating law schools can once again expect a high-class forum with a selection of outstanding legal candidates from Germany.

Join us and a group of highly motivated prospective students for the upcoming annual DAJV LL.M. Days 2021.

Information + Registration

Information

Contacts are more than just connections. When choosing the right law school, nothing is more important than having a personal impression and direct contact with a person who can answer your questions.

At the DAJV LL.M. Days you have the opportunity to meet the relevant representatives of excellent U.S. law schools. Due to the limited number of participants, you will have enough time to make personal contacts with law school representatives and alumni to address issues like:

- Why study in the U.S.?
- What is the right time for an LL.M.?
- How to finance the U.S. education?
- How to choose a law school and LL.M. program?
- Is it possible to negotiate individual conditions for tuition fees with the representatives?
- What do I have to consider when applying?
- Do I need an LL.M. to join a corporate law firm?

and much more...
